

Name: Answers

Primary 5-a-day

Bronze

3rd June

$44 \div 4$

Grid area for the first calculation. The answer '11' is written in a box at the bottom right.

11

30×30

Grid area for the second calculation. The answer '900' is written in a box at the bottom right.

900

Laura wants to buy a teddy bear.
She has £2
How much more money does she need?

£4.50

£6.50

Circle the shape that is not $\frac{1}{2}$ shaded

Four rectangular shapes with different shading patterns. The first one (a 3x4 grid with 5 squares shaded) is circled.

Lindsey has written down a three-digit number

Three boxes containing question marks: $\boxed{?} \boxed{?} \boxed{?}$

All the digits are odd
The digits add up to 25

What could her number be?

Three boxes containing the digits 7, 9, and 9: $\boxed{7} \boxed{9} \boxed{9}$

(any combination of these)