Name: _____ 5-a-day Platinum

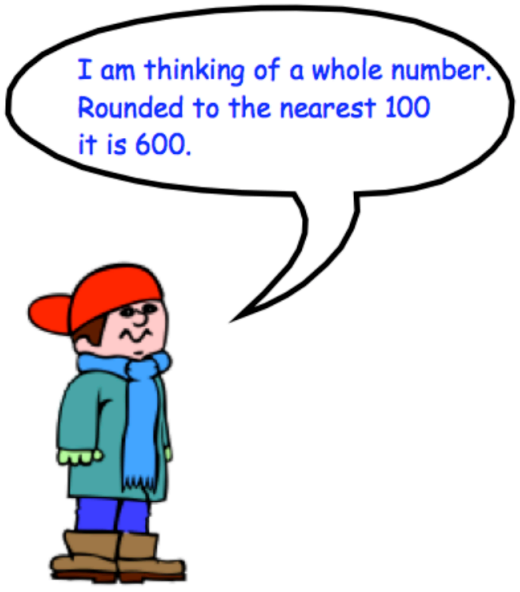
6th October

$3{,}276 \div 13$

$(10-4)^2$

What is the smallest possible number Timothy could be thinking of?

What is the largest possible number Timothy could be thinking of?



For every 5 50p coins, Laura has 4 20p coins.

Laura has £56.00 in 20p coins.

How much money does Laura have altogether?

© Corbettmaths 2017