

Name: _____

Primary 5-a-day

Bronze

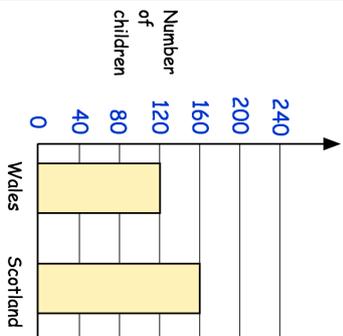

23rd June	600 – 20	15 × 3
	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
Add together the number of days in March and May
A teacher asked the children in a primary school if they had visited Wales or Scotland.	How many more children have been to Scotland than Wales?
	Jack thinks there are 280 children at the primary school. Why might Jack be wrong?

Name: _____

Primary 5-a-day

Bronze

23rd June	600 – 20	15 × 3
	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
Add together the number of days in March and May
A teacher asked the children in a primary school if they had visited Wales or Scotland.	How many more children have been to Scotland than Wales?
	Jack thinks there are 280 children at the primary school. Why might Jack be wrong?	